

Hi Pat,

The example of folding helped to prepare my students to analyze other cases where folding occurred and then unfold the data using SOLO.

The virtual tour was a great success and the students highly recommended I do it again in future semesters for my remote sensing lab. I plan to contact you next year to set this up again!

Cheers,
Scott